

KASHRUT: ANIMALS: CONCEPTS: MASORET

Beheimot Do Not Need Masoret

Beheimot (4-legged kosher animals) do not need masoret (tradition passed from previous generations that something was kosher) to be identified as kosher; they just need to have split hooves and to chew their cud.

Fowl Must Have Masoret

Fowl must have masoret to be identified as kosher.