Fore-Blessing: Bread or Mezonot

To be halachically considered "bread," the item must have been baked and have air holes in it. To determine whether a food made of the Five Grains qualifies as bread (ha'motzi) or mezonot (borei minei mezonot), decide whether the food had been made to be eaten as a meal or as a snack. If it was made to be:

- Bread (that is, for a meal), say ha'motzi.
- Mezonot (but you will eat a full meal), say ha'motzi.
- A snack, say borei minei mezonot.
- NOTE Some foods may qualify as either ha'motzi or mezonot (such as pizza).
- NOTE If at least 20\% of a bread's flour is from one of the Five Grains, say a fore-blessing of ha' motzi on the bread (and birkat ha'mazon afterward, if you ate at least 1.3 fl. oz. within four minutes).
- NOTE Whether the bread/mezonot was made with fruit juice instead of water may not affect its blessing, since the blessing is determined by its intended use. Mezonot rolls on airline flights may still require the blessing of ha'motzi if you eat them as part of a meal.
- NOTE Since it does not have air holes, wheat tortillas get the blessing of mezonot and not ha'motzi.
- NOTE The fore-blessing on stuffing made of bread or a bread kugel is mezonot if none of the pieces are 1 fl. oz. or larger.
