No Charity Limit for Jewish Education

There is no limit to how much “charity” you may give to Torah institutions.

NOTE You may give more than 20\% after taxes for Jewish education because it is considered an investment that benefits the donor--the donor shares in the reward that the student gets for studying Torah--rather than charity.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com