Passover Chametz Search: Where To Search

You must look for chametz (leavened foods) in any place where food might have been carried. If you have small children, you must search your entire house. However, you do not need to search in any place where no food was brought, nor in any closets that will be locked during Passover and the leavened food in them sold.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com