Breaking the Middle Matza

Break the middle of the three matzas and hide the larger part.

REASON As with most of the actions we do at the seder, this is to evoke curiosity in children. It also represents the idea that poor people can't afford a whole loaf of bread or might save some food for the next day.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com