Shabbat: Candles: Lighting with Wrong Blessing

If you said the blessing for Jewish festival candles instead of for Shabbat candles:

- Women may not correct themselves, but
- Men may say the correct blessing and light the candles.
- NOTE If the man has already lit the candles before realizing that he had said the incorrect blessing, he should:
  - Extinguish the candles,
  - Say the correct blessing, and then
  - Light again (assuming he has not yet started Shabbat and that it is not yet sunset).
