

Creating Competing Business

Generally, you may not go into a business if an existing business owner will go out of business or cannot survive on what income he/she will have remaining.

EXCEPTION If a better Torah teacher is available than the current one, the better one may be hired.