Adultery, Murder, Idol Worship

The Talmud says that a person must allow himself to be killed rather than violate any of three commandments that may not be violated: adultery; murder; idol worship. Note that in Jewish law, not all types or conditions of killing a person are defined as murder.

© Copyright 2026 Richard B. Aiken | www.practicalhalacha.com